What is the Companion Card?

A Companion Card is for people with significant and permanent disability who have a lifelong need for attendant care support to attend venues and participate in community events and recreational activities.

The card can be presented when booking or purchasing a ticket at participating events and venues and provides the cardholder with a ticket for their companion.

Who is eligible for a card?

You may be eligible for a Companion Card if:

1. you are an Australian citizen or resident, and live in NSW; and
2. you are a person with a significant and permanent disability; and
3. you are unable to participate at most community venues or activities without attendant care support; and
4. aids and other technologies do not meet your attendant care needs; and
5. your need for this level of attendant care will be life-long.

How to apply for a card

1.  Visit www.companioncard.nsw.gov.au to print an application form or request a printed copy by phone, email or post.
2.  Return the application form by post to:

What information do I need to provide with my application?

The Companion Card Application form asks for:

- » information about your disability
- » information about your need for lifelong attendant care
- » verification by your health professional or service provider confirming that you meet all of the Companion Card eligibility criteria
- » two high quality, colour passport photos signed by the person who verified your application.

How do I use a Companion Card?

The Companion Card can be used at participating businesses, venues and facilities across NSW and around Australia.

You or your companion show your Companion Card when booking or buying tickets from an affiliate. The affiliate will provide a FREE ticket for your companion.
